

Wedding Planning Time Line

The following wedding planning time line is designed to be a guide only. You should be prepared to alter the suggested activities to best meet your particular needs.

Twelve To Eighteen Months Before The Wedding

- Announce your engagement to friends and family.

Notes: _____

- Gather information from bridal books and other resources.

Notes: _____

- Discuss your wedding style, formality, size and location with both families.

Notes: _____

- Set a tentative date for your wedding; this may change according to the availability of vendors.

Notes: _____

- If you haven't done so, start shopping for engagement and wedding rings.

Notes: _____

- Decide on a ceremony site and reception venue.

Notes: _____

- Confirm the date and time with your clergyman/officiant.

Notes: _____

- Use the directory on this website to search for a reception location and secure your date with a deposit.

Notes: _____

- Begin the search for your wedding vendors. Start with photographers and videographers first.

Notes: _____

- Begin the search for your transportation, flowers, rentals and stationery.

Notes: _____

- Obtain music estimates; book services if possible.

Notes: _____

By using www.BestBridesPlanner.com strategically, you can save time by eliminating locations and vendors that aren't within your wedding plans or budget before you visit them.
